

JAZZ ROOM

New Orleans is the birthplace of jazz! The Jazz Room is a fun family recreation room filled with paintings and decor that represent the love of music and art in Louisiana.

VEGETABLE GARDEN

The Vegetable Garden was established by Governor Edwin Edwards during his Administration. It was updated during the Foster Administration and expanded upon during the John Bel Edwards Administration.

THE MANSION

The Governor's Mansion was built under the administration of Governor Jimmie Davis in 1963. It was designed in the style of the famous Oak Alley Plantation. The first governor to live in the Mansion for a full term was Governor John J. McKeithen, who took office in 1964.
